

ASG Presents New York Fashion Tour

May 20-26, 2012

This could be the trip of your dreams, and your chance to go behind the scenes in New York's fashion district. We meet Sunday at our hotel near the garment district for a get acquainted dinner reception. Your guides will be Marsha McClintock and Marla Kazell. Activities include a private half-day city bus tour, a visit to a designer's workroom, a private viewing at FIT's clothing collection and the Metropolitan Museum costume exhibit. We will also visit many of New York's designer fabric, trim stores and a fabric flower factory. An evening at a Broadway musical is planned along with a behind the scenes tour of McCall Patterns. We will see New York from the Top of the Rock, have an inside look at the costumes of Broadway's "Wicked" as well as some additional surprises. You will have free time to explore New York and we will finish the week with an beautiful evening dinner cruise. This tour requires a significant amount of walking. Space is limited to 22 so don't delay.

Guides: Marsha McClintock, owner of Sew Many Options Tours and SAF-T-POCKETS Patterns, is an experienced tour guide and teacher. She has led groups to NY, Paris, Hong Kong, Toronto, and Vancouver, BC. Her knowledge, approachable style, and humor will insure your tour experience will be a positive one. Marla Kazell teaches couture sewing and has assisted Marsha on many tours to New York. Both are ASG members.

Please do not make flight arrangements until you have been notified that the minimum group number has been met. We will use mass transportation during the tour. It is important that participants are able to walk a 1/2 mile at a moderate pace, plus climb several flights of stairs.
