

ASG FASHION SHOW 2017

MAKING MAGIC WITH FABRIC & THREAD

Orlando is the home of Disney World and the Magic Kingdom. The host chapter, along with fellow Florida chapters, is working hard to make this year's conference magical. This is your chance to make something "magical." All ASG conference attendees, educators and exhibitors are invited to participate in the 2017 Fashion Show to be presented during the Saturday Luncheon. As an added bonus, Louise Cutting will be guest commentator. The time for the show is limited to one hour and the number of participants will determine the number of garments each entrant can model. You may submit two (2) garments, but may be limited to modeling one so indicate your first choice if submitting two.

Rules for the Fashion Show entry:

- Limit of two (2) garments may be submitted.
- Use one submission form for each garment submitted.
- Fill out the form completely.
- Attach fabric swatch(es), a picture or sketch of the garment or photocopy of the pattern envelope.
- Attach a written commentary of no more than 75 words. You may include the pattern(s) used, unique techniques, embellishment, fabrics and inspiration used in the construction of your garment(s). Your commentary will be used to present your entry on the runway. We reserve the right to edit commentaries for clarity or time limitations.

There will be no exceptions to the deadline. To assist us in show production, we ask that you enter as soon as possible. Your garment need not be completed to submit an entry form, but all supporting details must be received by the deadline date.

You will receive an e-mail confirmation of your participation in the show. If you have not received confirmation within 10 days of submitting your form, contact Janelle Archer at jsarcher10@gmail.com. Only confirmed entries will be included in the show.

We look forward to seeing you in Orlando!
